RUGBY ACADEMY

Entry Requirements:

This course is not assessed and therefore does not have a specific entry requirement.

Is this for me? The Rugby Academy is ideal for anyone who enjoys rugby and is looking for an opportunity to continue playing regular competitive sport into the Sixth Form.

Players of all levels are welcome to join the Academy whether you are County level and above or new to competitive rugby. The emphasis is on enjoyment and team ethics.

This course will also complement other Post-16 Sports Offer courses such as AS & A2 Physical Education, BTEC Level 3 Sport, VTCT Level 3 Sport Studies, VTCT Level 2 Fitness Instructor, Outdoor Education BTEC Level 3 and Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

Embracing England's CARDS, shaping the next generation.

- C - Creativity
- A - Awareness
- R - Resilience
- D - Decision making
- S - Self-organisation

What will I do?

Students will train and play with Cornwall County coaches 2 times a week, and play regular competitive rugby in the College League and cup events.

You will enjoy team-building trips and days out as a team, and have the opportunity to sign up to any of the Sports Academy events.

All Academy students receive subsidised training kit and can also access the Academy Gymnasium throughout the day to receive personalised training and nutritional programmes from our experienced coaches.
